SENATE LEADERS WOULD END DEBATE ON NEUTRALITY ACT

REPORT TO PRESIDENT THAT PASSAGE OF MEASURE LIKELY BY FRIDAY

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23. (P)—Senate leaders sought to wind up general debate on the administration neutrality bill today after reporting to President Roosevelt that the measure probably would be passed by Friday.

Democratic Leader Barkley called the chamber into session at 11 a. m.—an hour earlier than usual. He told reporters there would be no more major speeches in behalf of the bill, and said his efforts were being directed solely toward obtaining a vote as soon as possible.

Starting the fourth week of debate on the neutrality bill, Senator Wiley (R-Wis) announced he would oppose repeal of the arms embargo. Wiley had been uncommitted.

Those present at the white house conference were Barkley, Republican Leader McNary, and Vice President Garner.

McNary told reporters afterward it was the consensus of those present that a vote on the measure would be reached by Friday.

McNary is opposed to the administration bill, but he was reported to have agreed with Barkley and Garner that it would be approved by a two-to-one majority.

During the day, Barkley planned to ask the senate to agree unanimously to limit future debate. One highly-placed opposition leader predicted that an agreement would be reached.

Wiley told the senate his stand represented "an honest evaluation of public opinion painstakingly gathered from the crossroads all over Wisconsin by nonpartisan folks whose judgment I respect."

Garner Backs Effort End Neutrality Debate

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23. (P)—Administration leaders in the senate, backed by Vice President Garner, made a final effort today to wind up the battle of words on the neutrality bill.

They called the senate into session and hour early—in the hope of concluding general debate and starting action on more than a score of amendments.

The final vote is widely expected before the week ends.

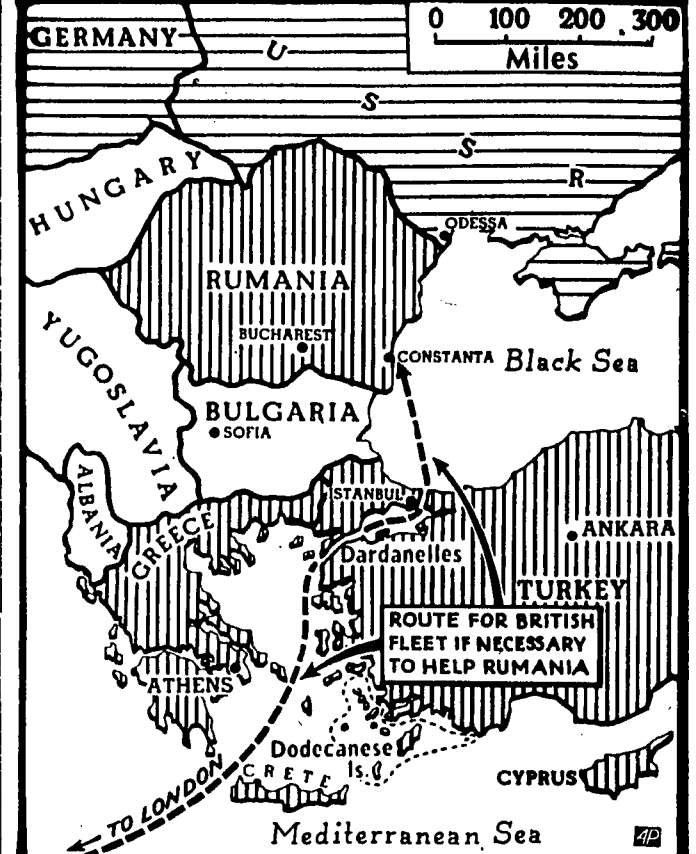

The early morning hour was a reply to the opposition's refusal Saturday to enter a formal agreement to limit further speeches.

The administration forces hoped to obtain such an agreement this afternoon, and failing that, to hold sessions longer than the usual five-hour meetings.

Vice President Garner was reported authoritatively not only to be pressing for a vote this week, but to be opposing action on a special session on a $50,000,000 flood-drought relief proposal, deficiency defense appropriations or any other legislation after disposing of the bill repealing the arms embargo and providing "cash and carry" sales to belligerents.

Corsicana Water Works Project Given Approval

A telegram was received Saturday by Mayor J. S. Murchison from Congressman Luther A. Johnson in Washington stating approval had been given the water system improvements project.

The telegram read: "Filtration plant project now approved by WPA and awaiting final presidential approval."

The project cost is estimated at $145,000 and will include an added filter unit, a second main from the lake to the city limits, and other improvements to the pumping plant and distribution system. The work was originally filed as a PWA project and later changed to the other federal agency and has been pending several months. It was recently revised because of changed regulations and wage scales.

Mayor Murchison stated the city and the federal government would share equally in the cost of the work, and indicated work might start in the near future. Since state WPA officials appeared anxious to get the project under way, the mayor stated work of placing the final topping coat on West Third Avenue would begin Monday and should be completed in about two weeks.

TWO PERSONS WERE SERIOUSLY INJURED HIGHWAY ACCIDENT HEAVY TRUCK AND PASSENGER AUTOMOBILE COLLIDE NEAR CORSICANA

Two persons were seriously injured and two received minor hurts late Sunday night when the automobile in which they were riding figured in a collision with a truck on south highway 75 near the Dorricks. They were rushed to the P. and S. Hospital in a Corley Ambulance.

Dorothy Mae Butler, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Butler, 1557 West Fifth avenue, was critically injured. Hospital authorities stated early Monday morning that the extent of her injuries had not been completely determined but her condition was regarded as grave. Johnnie B. Smith, 19, 1108 North Beaton street, received a fractured skull and fractured pelvis.

Dorothy Dell Rea, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rea, 1246 West Second avenue, and Cecil King, 1246 West Second avenue, received minor bruises and lacerations and according to hospital attendants, will be removed to their homes sometime Monday.

Sheriff Cap Curington and other officers answered the call and conducted an investigation into the matter. The sheriff said that the car in which the four injured persons were riding was reported to have been passing an automobile occupied by Elmer and Ben Hand, both of Corsicana, on the pavement when the truck, owned by the Galveston Trucking Line, of Houston, and driven by J. T. Splawn of Houston, apparently came over the hill.

The truck driver, according to the sheriff, pulled his vehicle off the pavement, but the car and truck collided. Both the car and truck were badly damaged, and officers said the heavier vehicle been loaded, several persons would have been instantly killed. The sheriff resolved the truck driver of blame in the matter.

Four Infants In Hospital Nursery Are Suffocated

PERTH AMBOY, N. J. Oct. 23.—(P)—Four of six infants in the nursery of Perth Amboy General hospital died of asphyxiation early today, less than an hour before they were to be taken to their mothers' rooms for 2 a. m. feeding.

Coroner James Flynn, Jr., said a valve blew out of a radiator, filling the nursery with steam which exhausted the supply of oxygen in the room and resulted in the "accidental asphyxiation by steam" of the infants.

Four physicians and two hospital internes worked several hours, applying artificial respiration and administering oxygen to the tiny bodies of the six babies, but saved only two of them.

Coroner Flynn quoted Mrs. Daisy McGinness, nurse in charge of the nursery, as saying she had "found everything all right" when she inspected the room at 1:30 a. m. Thirty minutes later, she returned to find the nursery "full of

PACT WITH TURKEY RATED AS GREATEST WAR ACHIEVEMENT

BRITAIN GOES AHEAD WITH PREPAREDNESS FOR REAL WAR WHEN IT COMES

LONDON, Oct. 23. (P)—Great Britain today counted the first 50 days of war as well spent although there still was little to answer the question, "What kind of war is this?"

As the war entered its eighth week, commentators rated the British-Turkish mutual assistance pact as the number one achievement so far but there also was much pointing with pride to the way British warplanes had beaten off the first air attack on a naval convoy in the North Sea.

The home front, however, apparently satisfied to hammer away on preparedness and let the "real war" come when it will.

Counting four German planes shot down in the convoy raid Saturday and another off the east coast yesterday, the air ministry figured at least 13 enemy aircraft were lost in a week that brought air raid warnings somewhere every day.

The assertion yesterday of United States Senator William E. Borah that "powerful British interests were trying to draw the United States into the war was given little space on the news pages and there was no editorial comment."

Much bigger headlines went to German Propaganda Minister Paul Joseph Goebbels' remark about Winston Churchill, first lord of the admiralty, "Goebbels lies for 37 Minutes," The Herald headlined its report of the German minister's broadcast.

"The price of eggs went up about six cents a dozen and there were slight increases also in bacon, meat, fish and jam. Some 46,000,000 food rationing cards were ready for distribution and November 13 was given as the probable starting day for rationing."

Air Raid Warning

LONDON, Oct. 23. (P)—An air raid warning was sounded over the Firth of Forth area of Scotland today but was cancelled shortly thereafter.

The "all clear" was sounded 15 minutes after the alarm had been lifted about noon (6 a. m., CST) in other regions of southeast Scotland.

Nothing but the bare announcements concerning the alarms was known immediately of the latest menace of Nazi bombers which have raided the British coasts almost daily for the past week.

Planes Attack U-Boats

LONDON, Oct. 23. (P)—The air ministry announced today that British warplanes had made two attacks on German submarines and both were "believed to have been successful."

The announcement said one attack took place in the North Sea and the other in the Atlantic, many miles from the aircraft's bases.

After both attacks the pilots returned circling above the places where the U-boats were seen and nothing more was seen of the U-boats, said the communiqué.

GERMAN POLITICAL LEADERS PREPARING FOR EXTENDED WAR

ACTIVITIES MINIMIZED AND NO MENTION MADE OF RECENT ALLEGED LOSSES

By LOUIS P. LOCHNER
BERLIN, Oct. 23. (P)—Germany's political army—the Nazi party—set out today to further consolidate the "home front" now that the first phase of the war in the west is completed—according to the high command—and the lightning campaign in Poland was ended nearly a month ago.

There were no indications of how long Germany expected the armed conflict with Britain and France to last, but in preliminary meetings of party organizers the possibility was considered that the war may last months, even years.

The high command's daily communiqué again was brief. It reported only artillery and reconnoitering activity on the western front during the last 24 hours, and said a tri-motored British plane had been sighted Saturday over Konzen 15 miles from Aachen, and then disappeared over the Belgian frontier.

When foreign correspondents at their daily press conference inquired why no mention was made in the communiqué of a mine disaster to a German patrol boat in the Baltic sea Saturday and of an engagement between German planes and British vessels and planes off Scotland the same day, an authoritative reply was given that "these matters are still under investigation, therefore a statement cannot presently be made."

Another Trial Balloon

Runners of Moscow to the effect that Joseph Stalin had declined to give further military aid to Germany were put off with the laconic statement: "That is another trial balloon to see what kind of a rise can be got out of us."

What strategic moves were contemplated by army commanders in the western warfare remained their secret.

Meanwhile, Propaganda Minister Paul Joseph Goebbels, in a radio address broadcast in many languages, appealed for sympathy abroad by accusing Britain of sinking the British liner Athenian to enlist America on her side.

Goebbels' message, First Lord of the Admiralty Winston Churchill to "go into the lower house or stand before the radio and tell the truth about the Athenian."

Later in the day, the Athenian was sunk by a German U-boat.

"How could you say, Mr. Churchill," Goebbels asked, "that the Athenian was sunk by a German torpedo when you knew it went down under the fire of three British destroyers?"

The Nazi campaign to strengthen German morale in the face of alleged blockade was marked by numerous mass meetings in which the conflict was characterized as "a struggle of heroes." It was predicted freely France and Britain would break first.

"We don't know how long this war will last," one speaker said. "Perhaps it will last several years."

ORDER OF FEDERAL COURT STAYS HIKE IN TEXTILE PAY

NEW WAGE-HOUR SCHEDULE IN SOUTHERN COTTON MILLS IS ATTACKED

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 23. (P)—A federal court order, staying a pay hike in southern textile mills under the wage-hour law went into effect today.

While the order was granted by Appellate Judge Rufus Foster Saturday upon petition of only three mills, court attaches said eventually about 200 southern mills would be affected.

These mills, however, would be limited to the jurisdiction of the court which includes Louisiana, Mississippi, Texas, Alabama, Georgia, and Florida.

Any such order in other parts of the country would have to be obtained from the courts in those sections.

The order was issued contingent upon posting of a $10,000 bond, a penalty of $10,000 bonds were made this morning by the J. W. Sanders Cotton Mill, Inc., and the Aponaga Manufacturing company, both owned by J. W. Sanders of Jackson, Miss.

The two mills were intervenors in a suit brought by the Opp Cotton Mills of Opp, Ala.

The order stayed enforcement of a special wage increase to 32 1/2 cents an hour minimum in the textile industry, ordered effective tomorrow by the wage-hour administration.

The increase was in addition to the order effective tomorrow lifting the present general minimum wage rate from 25 cents an hour.

Large Amount Of Loot Secured By Burglars Kerens

Burglars made a big haul from the Talley and Gray store at Kerens during the week-end. The burglary was discovered early Monday morning, and was reported to the sheriff's office.

Sheriff Cap Curington stated about twenty silks of clothes, twenty ladies silk dresses and about twenty men's leather and wool jackets were missed, while additional losses may be discovered when a complete check-up is made by the owners.

County officers immediately inaugurated an investigation into the case. No arrests had been made Monday morning.

The burglary occurred sometime Saturday night and Monday morning, officers said.

WHETHER TEXAS LEGISLATURE BE CALLED INTO EXTRA SESSION STILL REMAINS PUBLIC MYSTERY

AUSTIN, Oct. 23. (P)—If any person in the capital knew today whether the Texas legislature would meet in special session to raise social security revenue it apparently was not Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel.

The man whose signature on a proclamation would summon members for an extraordinary session reported on his Sunday broadcast from the mansion:

"At this time there is no way to know what the outcome will be, but we may ask the public to be patient while we are working on this plan."

His speech was not broadcast by WBAP, the Fort Worth Star-Telegram's station which said O'Daniel declined to submit an advance script as required by the code of the National Association of Broadcasters. Invited to address a church congregation at Rockdale after the radio appearance, the governor asserted he had been asked to furnish a copy his speech to be "censored."

The "plan" was a mail poll of legislators who were asked whether they favored a consumers tax bill similar to a proposed constitutional amendment levying sales and natural resources taxes which died at the last general session.

The chief executive said some of the replies had been "rather indignant" which necessitated further correspondence.

Explaining his poll was saving taxpayers $5,000 a day (the average daily expense of legislative meetings), the governor added:

"I am simply trying to do my duty by asking for information so that I may make the proper decision as to whether or not a special session of the legislature should be called at this time."

SENATOR HILL SAYS WILL NOT AGREE TO 'HOGTIE' HIMSELF

DECLARES O'DANIEL PLAN IS TO TAX MEAT, BREAD AND CLOTHING OF PEOPLE

AUSTIN, Oct. 23. (P)—Senator Joe Hill of Henderson said today he would not "hogtie" himself to what he declared was Governor W. Lee O'Daniel's proposal to "tax the meat, bread and clothing of the people."

The senator's statement replied to O'Daniel's questionnaire to legislators as to their opinion on a consumer-natural resources tax bill to finance the social security program.

Hill propounded 75 questions to the governor on campaign pledges, radio statements, addresses to the legislature and other matters and wound up with an assertion "the people will recognize in you and your program the same character of service given Texas during reconstruction in the days of E. J. Davis."

Staunch opponents of a constitutional amendment proposing sales-natural resources taxes which died at the last general session of the legislature, Hill declared the governor in principle still seeking passage of a sales tax, contrary to campaign pledges.

"You went into the governor's office with an overwhelming vote," Hill said.

"Had you been sincere in your

INDIA MAY BE BROUGHT INTO SOVIET SPHERE OF INFLUENCE WHILE BRITISH BUSY WITH WAR

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Diplomatic quarters in Moscow express the belief that the Soviet may take advantage of England's preoccupation with the war and try to extend Russian influence into India through the buffer state of Afghanistan.

Probably coincidentally, but none the less embarrassing to Britain, is the sensational political action taken by the powerful India congress to force England to pledge measures of Indian independence after the war.

The congress, or nationalist party, under the leadership of Mohandas Ghandi, has adopted the extreme measure of calling on the eight provincial governments which it controls to resign. Since the congress dominates all but three of the governments of British India, resignations of eight would make pretty well a clean sweep.

This political upheaval, coupled with the possibility of further Soviet effort to make India communist, presents a real problem to the mother country, which already has its hands full in the war.

Ever since communism established itself in Russia it has done its utmost to grow the "ism" in this nationalist soil with some success, though not widespread, owing to the vigorous countermeasures of the British government.

Actually the Russian ambition to dominate India isn't original with communism, since it long was a czarist dream. And Afghanistan always was regarded as the gateway to this mysterious land where the princes are so rich

SECOND PHASE OF WAGE-HOUR LAW IS EFFECTIVE TUESDAY

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23. (P)—The second phase of the wage-hour law, effective Tuesday, increases the minimum wage and shortens the maximum work-week for workers in interstate industries. Some pertinent aspects of the changes are illustrated by these questions and answers.

Q. What is the wage-hour law?

A. It is a federal statute which regulates certain labor standards in industries doing business in interstate commerce by requiring payment of a minimum wage and time and a half pay for work done in excess of a maximum work week.

Q. What changes in these labor standards does the act require at this time?

A. Effective October 24, all employees subject to the act are required to pay an hourly wage of at least 30 cents, instead of 25 cents, and a maximum work week of 42 hours, instead of 44 hours, with and a half for overtime. The act provides for certain exceptions in the wage requirements as in cases of learners or handicapped workers.

Q. How many workers will be covered by the change?

COMMUNIST PARTY SECRETARY CHARGED IN PASSPORT CASE

FORMER CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENCY HELD IN BAIL OF $10,000

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—(P)—Earl Browder, secretary of the communist party in the United States, was indicted by a federal grand jury today on a charge of false application for a passport.

Browder was taken into custody immediately and removed before Federal Judge William Bondy. He pleaded innocent and was held in $10,000 bail. No date was set for a hearing.

The true bill was returned to Federal Judge Francis G. Caffey, who immediately recessed the grand jury for two hours.

The communist leader testified Sept. 6 before the Dies committee investigating unAmerican activities that he had traveled in Europe within the last two years on a passport bearing a fictitious name.

The indictment charged Browder lied in September, 1934, when he obtained a passport under his own name, and again when he had it renewed in February, 1937.

On both of these occasions, the indictment said, he denied in his application that he had ever had a passport before, although he had obtained one in the name of "Nicholas Dozenberg" in March, 1921, and another in the name of "George Morris" in November, 1927.

The maximum penalty on conviction is a fine of $5,000 and a 5-year prison term or both on each count.

Surprised and Angry

Browder arrived at the federal building shortly after the indictment was returned and, was not aware of the grand jury's action until two detectives seized him in a corridor. He appeared surprised and angry.

The action of the federal authorities against Browder, a former candidate for the presidency on the communist ticket, followed a widening investigation into a fraudulent passport ring. It grew out of the notorious Robinso-Rubens passport fraud case.

Records of World Tourists, Inc., whose treasurer is Alexander Trachtenberg, member of the Communist party's governing committee, have been seized by federal agents. It was learned and a guard put over the company's offices here.

New York newspapers said the federal grand jury had issued subpoenas for other individuals and groups in an investigation of "passport mills" organized to facilitate the travel abroad by communist foreign spies with fraudulent and forged documents.

U. S. Attorney John T. Cahill declined to comment on reports several persons already had been taken into custody on secret indictments. Communist party officials, normally easily reached, were unavailable by telephone.

The undercover inquiry was disclosed last night with an announcement by the department of

SURVIVORS OF HUGE FRENCH TANKER SUNK BY GERMAN SUB TELL OF UNNOUNCED FIRE

BOSTON, Oct. 23. (P)—Survivors of the huge French tanker Emile Miquet told today how a German U-boat had opened fire upon their highly explosive vessel without warning, with one shell cutting a seaman almost in half, but then had allowed others of the crew to escape before torpedoing the ship.

Captain Robert Andrade of the Emile Miquet, the biggest commercial vessel yet bagged by Nazi submarines, described vividly the sudden attack which left his craft a roaring inferno, as he and the 38 other survivors arrived here on the American rescue ship Black Hawk.

The French tanker was about two days off the French coast on October 12 and dusk had just fallen when the first shell screamed overhead. Seven or eight other shells followed in quick succession, Captain Andrade said.

"One struck the crew's quarters, almost cutting in half Joseph LeMaou, an 18-year-old apprentice seaman," he said.

LeMaou was the only one lost in the sinking, his body being left aboard the slowly sinking tanker. One other crew member suffered a head injury from shell fire, but recovered after treatment aboard the Black Hawk.

"I halted the submarine after the first burst of shell fire," Captain Andrade said, "and asked permission to take my men off before the ship was sunk. The German commander granted this permission, and all 30 of us crowded into the one lifeboat that was left after the shelling."

"We were packed in like sardines, but otherwise we suffered

EARLY FLOODS OF WINTER ARE AIDING FRENCH WAR PLANS

TACTICS BELIEVED AIMED AT SAPPING NAZI MORALE WHILE SAVING MEN

PARIS, Oct. 23. (P)—The western front spring to life today, after days of calm, with reinforced patrols fighting brisk engagements on the northern flank.

This was revealed in a high command communiqué issued shortly after Premier Daladier announced he would call parliament into extraordinary session the second week of November to approve financial credits for the war.

The communiqué described activity on the front as "marked" after a series of communications which listed calm days and nights broken only by slight patrol activity.

The sector extending west toward the Luxembourg frontier from the Saar river was listed as the area where the skirmishing was heaviest.

The coming session of parliament will be the first since the war started on Sept. 3.

The session became necessary under French law if the government were to obtain passage of the 1940 budget, without which it

TEXAS FEDERATION OF LABOR OPENS ITS ANNUAL CONVENTION

GALVESTON GATHERING IS PEEVED HANDLING SOCIAL SECURITY IN TEXAS

GALVESTON, Oct. 23.—(AP)—Delegates to the annual convention of the Texas Federation of Labor today roared approval to a suggestion that the arms embargo should be repealed, and cheered mention of President Roosevelt and the late Samuel Gompers.

Applause for statements in opposition to a sales tax bore out indications that the delegates would be strong resolutions on the subject.

Rep. T. R. Robinson of Galveston was applauded when he spoke against S. J. R. 12, and State Senator W. E. Stone of Galveston telling of his support of labor laws was cheered when he referred indirectly to Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel by saying:

"Those of you who listen to your radio every Sunday morning will know what we are up against."

Harry W. Ackerman of Austin, executive secretary of the Federation, focused the convention's attention on Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel's manner of handling the situation, by saying:

"The governor has taken $6 a month from the old people. In return he has given them nice speeches every Sunday. Perhaps the speeches are worth $6 a month to them, but I doubt it."

Opposition to a sales tax was voiced by many delegates and predictions were made the labor group would favor financing old age pensions and the social security problem through a tax on natural resources.

The Allied Printing Trades Council yesterday passed a resolution expressing sympathy for the aged and asserting they have been "cruelly deceived by the governor's pre-election promise of more liberal pensions without any additional taxes."

The Printing Trades Council opposed by resolution a sales tax in any form.

The Printing Trades Council re-elected as its president, W. W. Strong of Houston to serve an eighth term. Other officers elected included W. F. Hill, Port Arthur, secretary-treasurer; C. L. Lundgren of Austin, fourth vice president.

The Texas Fire Fighters Association concluded a two-day meeting by electing H. C. Crogan of El Paso to succeed R. E. Dickert as president; other officers elected included: A. L. Adams, Texarkana, third vice president, and E. Ray, Port Arthur, fourth vice president.

The Texas Building Trades Council re-elected W. W. Finch of Amarillo, chairman. B. A. Gritta of Galveston was elected to succeed Thomas R. Jones of Dallas as secretary. Other officers elected included: Elbert Crow, El Paso, third vice chairman, and Paul Ray of Waco, fifth vice chairman.

Justice in Washington that it expected "some decisive action in a few hours" against Browder.

The announcement came shortly after the Republican National committee issued an attack on Attorney General Frank Murphy by Rep. J. Parnell Thomas (R-NJ), a member of the Dies committee investigating un-American activities.

Recalling that Browder admitted before the Dies committee that he had used a falsified passport, Thomas accused the attorney general of being "strangely indifferent and listless" and said he "owes an explanation to the American people of his failure" to act.

Answering Statement.

The Department of Justice's answering statement said:

"It obviously seems to be a curious coincidence that the Republican National committee issues a statement tonight in which it accuses Attorney General Thomas of New Jersey of laxity in considering the Browder case."

"The facts are that the department has been actively preparing this case and others for some time and that it expects some decisive action in a few hours."

"It is altogether possible that the Republican National committee in some devious way learned of the department's decision."

The maximum penalty on conviction of willfully making false statements in passport applications or knowingly using or aiding in obtaining passports secured by false statements is a five-year prison term, a $2,000 fine, or both.

Browder testified before the Dies committee on Sept. 6 that he had traveled abroad within the last two years under a passport bearing a fictitious name.

"The facts are that the department has been actively preparing this case and others for some time and that it expects some decisive action in a few hours."

Wants Bond Prosecuted Also.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—(AP)—Chairman Dies (D-Tex.) of the House committee investigating un-American activities called on the state and federal departments to prosecute the Communist party and the German-American Bund for "violation of the registration law."

He said in a statement that unless the departments act quickly, he would ask his committee for authority to "place the whole case" before the federal district attorney here.

A federal law requires the registration at the state department of all agents of foreign principals.

"This is not in criticism of the departments of state and justice but the evidence is now so conclusive that there is no excuse known to me for further delay," Dies said.

U.S. Supreme Court Refused to Review Big Medical Suit

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—(AP)—The supreme court refused today to pass on the government's suit charging the American Medical Association with conspiracy to violate the Sherman anti-trust law by practicing against a group health organization.

Another opportunity to review the litigation undoubtedly will be given the high tribunal after a decision is returned by the United States court of appeals for the District of Columbia.

The government had appealed directly to the supreme court from an adverse decision by the federal district court for the District of Columbia. The medical association did not oppose this procedure.

The 1890 anti-trust law did not apply to physicians because they are engaged in a profession and not a trade. The law prohibits activities in restraint of trade in interstate commerce.

The justice department said a decision by the high tribunal would affect the conditions of medical practice throughout the United States.

PARIS, Oct. 23.—(AP)—Early winter floods added France's "super-guerrilla" war against Germany as the opposing armies settled down today in the approximate positions they occupied at the outbreak of hostilities.

The French, having relinquished virtually all positions on German soil seized in the first few weeks of the war, indicated their tactics were aimed at expelling Germany's civilian morale, while avoiding "needless" sacrifice of their own troops.

The only type of action now being waged on the front, they said, consists of a kind of "guerrilla" warfare involving skirmishes by patrols constantly seeking to chart enemy positions.

Apparently pointing to a continued lack of large scale military activity was a war ministry announcement that beginning Nov. 1 men with France's armed forces would be granted 10 days leave for every four months of service.

During the World War, leaves were granted only after a year of active service.

Today's communiqué said "the night was quiet on the front as a whole."

Withdrawal of French troops across their border along most of the northern end of the front relaxed pressure on Saarbrücken, rich German industrial center, threatened from three sides since early days of the war.

The French said, however, the city still was dominated by their artillery near Forbach and by troops on the small heights in the Warndt forest. Their heights, southwest of Saarbrücken, are the only positions on German soil now occupied by their forces, the French said.

Heavy rains sent the Blies river out of its banks and washed out bridges east of Saarbrücken. Small streams overflowed elsewhere along the entire northern end of the front between the Moselle and the Rhine rivers, curtailing military activities.

Mann to Probe Motion Picture Firms In Dallas

AUSTIN, Oct. 23.—(AP)—An examination of the books and records of Dallas offices of all motion picture companies was ordered today by Attorney General Gerald C. Mann.

The attorney general said the examination was in line with routine investigations "being conducted over the state by law enforcement division of his department and 'does not necessarily indicate law violations.'"

"It is the duty of the attorney general to make such investigations from time to time and suits are filed only in the event such investigations clearly indicate illegal practices," he added.

Assistant Attorney General Walter Koch, head of the law enforcement division, will supervise the investigation. Other assistants and investigators are in Dallas to commence work, Mann said.

He pointed out his department has instigated "numerous probes" among various industries of the state.

Last week Mann named 11 rice milling companies defendants in an anti-trust suit following an investigation. Prior to that, investigators examined the books of the Humble Oil and Refining Company and Mann informed Comptroller George H. Sheppard to demand payment of $700,000 in chain taxes allegedly due and unpaid by filling stations operated by the oil company.

ELLISON OUSTED MONDAY AS ATTORNEY GENERAL LOUISIANA

Governor Long Sent State Troopers Remove Official in Sudden Move

BATON ROUGE, La., Oct. 23.—(AP)—Governor Earl K. Long today ousted Attorney General David M. Ellison and his first assistant, James O'Connor, Sr., on the grounds they were holding office illegally.

Deputy P. Gardiner, second assistant attorney general, was named attorney general by the governor who effected Ellison's sudden removal by sending seven state troopers to take over his office shortly before noon.

Later in the day Gardiner said he had not yet considered naming his assistants and did not know whether O'Connor, for years a staunch administration man, would be reappointed.

The governor declared that Ellison, legally appointed first assistant attorney general, illegally took the oath of office as attorney general last week.

By this move, the governor contended, Ellison automatically abandoned his legal post of first assistant attorney general. Since he was thus holding office without right, the executive contended, then it was illegal for him to appoint O'Connor as his first assistant.

O'Connor had held that post but stepped aside so Ellison could be elevated when former Attorney General Gaston C. Porterle quit to become federal judge for the western district of Louisiana.

The governor in his office at the capital said:

"I have just found out Ellison was serving illegally and I have appointed Leslie P. Gardiner, second assistant attorney general, to the position of attorney general."

Fourteen Missing In Sinking of Two British Steamers

British naval authorities said today that the attacks of German submarines on allied shipping had again become considerable, but contended that losses were small in comparison with those of 1917, when Germany began her unrestricted submarine campaign in the World War.

Disclosure was made today of the sinking of two British vessels with a total of at least 14 persons missing and 30 survivors accounted for from the two ships.

British naval experts said that from their standpoint the most significant war development was the raids by German warplanes on British ships and anchorages and the losses of the Nazis incurred in these raids in comparison with the damage they inflicted.

The cause of the sinking of the 1,692-ton steamer Whittemantle in the North Sea was not given in today's announcement. Fourteen crew members were missing and survivors were landed at an east coast port.

The 2,327-ton coastal vessel Sea Venture, owned by the Dover Navigation company of London, was disclosed to have sunk after an explosion. Its crew of 25 landed on an island in one of the steamer boats.

Naval authorities stressed their assertion that the Germans lost about 16 planes in the past week's series of raids on Scapa Flow, the Fifth of Forth and action in the North Sea. Hitherto the German losses had been computed at 13 planes.

WAR SECRETARY OF BRITISH PREDICTS USE 'WAITING WAR'

THREE COURSES OPEN TO GERMANY SINCE RUSSIA HAS CHECKMATED HER

LONDON, Oct. 21.—(AP)—War Secretary Leslie Hore-Belisha said tonight that Russia has checkmated Germany in the use of "waiting war" tactics to fight Germany to the finish.

"No peace proposals which rely for their sanction on a broken word can be considered," he said. In a broadcast on the progress of the war, ending its seventh week, the former newspaperman said:

"Three courses are open to Nazi Germany—to try to smash through by land, sea and air; to remain quiescent in the hope we will prematurely take up the offensive against them; or to use the offensive against us, but to use it in the discussion of specious terms of peace."

As for the first course, he continued, "recent military experience shows that an offensive against prepared positions is unprofitable. On the western front there are strong defenses and they become stronger every day. The enemy will pay dearly for any massive attack upon them."

Of Germany's ambitions he said: "Poland was not an item. The Baltic states were to be dominated; but from these, German nationalists are now in retreat. Russia has claimed this sphere of influence. The corn fields of the Ukraine were coveted. Russia has made sure of this harvest. Through Poland Nazi Germany was to have an entrance to Rumania. This entrance has been barred by Russia."

He referred eloquently to the new French-British-Turkish pact signed Thursday.

To Depend Upon Factories. Hore-Belisha said "the final magnitude of our effort will depend on the extent to which factories can supply equipment and munitions for our men."

Recalling Prime Minister Chamberlain's words that Britain was determined to "redeem Europe from the perpetual and recurring fear of German aggression," Hore-Belisha asserted:

"We did not enter the fight merely to reconstitute Czechoslovakia. Nor do we fight merely to reconstitute a Polish state. Our aims are not confined by geographical frontiers. We are concerned with the frontiers of the human spirit. x x x only the defeat of Nazi Germany can lighten the darkness which now shrouds our continent and lighten the horizon for all Europe and the world."

LLOYD GEORGE DEFENDS HIS ADVOCACY OF WORLD PEACE AT GENERAL CONFERENCE TABLE

CARNARVON, Wales, Oct. 21.—(AP)—David Lloyd George told his Welsh constituents today that his advocacy of a general world settlement had been "viciously misrepresented" and further that "you can be firm at a conference as well as on the battlefield."

Britain's world war prime minister maintained that he was entirely consistent in declaring for "no surrender" to Germany yet simultaneously showing a willingness to attempt a conference settlement of the European war. If in such a conference, Lloyd George said, "it became clear (Adolf) Hitler had no intention of doing justice and that he meant to cling with greedy tenacity to his conquests, we could quit the conference with a clear conscience."

TENNESSEE MOTHER OF FIVE CHILDREN OFFERS TO SELL AN EYE TO GIVE THEM A CHANCE

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Oct. 21.—(AP)—A mother of five children waited today for a person willing to pay $5,000 for the cornea of one of her eyes.

"We are tired of this business of being on relief," said middle-aged Mrs. Grace Davis in explaining why she would sell the sight of one eye.

Standing barefoot in her cottage door, Mrs. Davis said this is a great sacrifice but, I would gladly make it for my children who have not had a chance.

The cornea is the transparent window in front of the pupil of the eye. An operation sometimes will restore sight to persons with corneal scars and accidents.

Mrs. Davis' offer was disclosed at a meeting of the American College of Surgeons in Philadelphia in a letter addressed to Howard W. Blakelee, secretary of the Association Press. She also offered to sell some skin for plastic surgery "for so much according to amount taken."

Beseeching Blakelee to "see if there isn't some one who wants to buy sight," Mrs. Davis wrote: "I want to sell the cornea of one of my eyes; and some skin for plastic surgery. My eyes are dark brown and in very good condition. I've never had any trouble with them. I am free of social disease. I am a woman of 39 and in good health. I would sell one of my eyes for $5,000 x x x."

Her children range in age from four to 19. Two of them are in a state school because she is unable to support them. Mrs. Davis said: "A three-month-old grandson also lives with her."

Mrs. Davis would use the $5,000 to buy a farm, commenting that "my husband is a good farmer and we would all be happy together."

Until last week Mrs. Davis' husband was employed two days a week at $1.50 daily by the city health department. He now works WPA job paying around $80 monthly, she said.

She explained her husband "didn't let me do anything my- self like this, but added he had agreed to the eye-sale proposal."

The dispatch said the Schwab, an 8,631-ton ship, had in turn been sunk by a British cruiser.

However, there was nothing in the first announcement, by Sir Alfred Booth of the Booth Line, to bear out the theory the raider had been caught. How the two officers were freed was not disclosed.

When the Clement went down off the Brazilian coast Captain F. C. Harris and Chief Engineer W. Bryant were taken aboard the surface vessel that sank the raider.

"We have just received a message that they (the two officers) are coming home on the next available steamer and we understand they are quite well," Sir Alfred announced.

MANY LOSE LIVES IN TORPEDOING OF TWO BRITISH SHIPS

THREE HUNDRED SURVIVORS FROM YORKSHIRE AND MANDALAY RESCUED

BORDEAUX, France, Oct. 21.—(AP)—At least 60 persons lost their lives in the sinking of two British steamers in the Atlantic Tuesday, authorities estimated today as they checked the stories of some 300 survivors landed here last night by a rescue ship.

Officials said 61 apparently had gone down with the Yorkshire and six or seven with the City of Mandalay. The two vessels were sunk by a submarine within a half hour about 500 miles off the Spanish coast.

Tales of hardship and terror were told by the survivors. Ambulances were waiting when the rescue ship, the German freighter Independence Hall, commanded by Captain D. J. McKenzie, reached port.

Survivors said the Yorkshire and the City of Mandalay were in a convoy of 19 other vessels under the guard of British warships, but became separated from the convoy one day out from Gibraltar.

The 10,000-ton Yorkshire was the first to go down, torpedoed, passengers said, by a submarine which they identified as German. The City of Mandalay was struck a short time later.

The Mandalay, first to be reached, was breaking in two when the Independence Hall dove in sight. "Because the heavy seas more than two hours were required to complete the rescue work."

Some of the 60 passengers aboard the Independence Hall said that while the City of Mandalay was being picked up by a submarine suddenly came to the surface, signalled "How many have you saved?" and then submerged.

The Wilhelm lifted a full cargo of cotton, said to have been around 30,000 bales from Galveston, Houston, Corpus Christi and Brownsville for the United Kingdom. The New York Maritime register shows the ship sailed last from Brownsville, departing that port August 25.

The report went on to say that the ship put into a Mexican port after she sailed from Brownsville. The length of time she remained in Mexico is not known.

Sixty Germans Removed. NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—(AP)—Sixty Germans were removed from the Italian liner Conte Di Savoia for the United States, were removed by French authorities at Algiers, line officers reported today when the ship arrived with 1,356 passengers.

Officers said a French seaplane flew over the bow some time after the ship left Naples and Genoa and signalled the ship to stop. Under guidance of the French destroyer, the ship was brought in to Algiers where passports of all passengers were examined.

Then the 60 were picked out of the crowd from W. F. Belcher. Line officers said they understood the 60 were to be put in a concentration camp in Algiers for the duration of the war.

ACREAGE REPORTED BEING BLOCKED FOR ANOTHER OIL TEST

LIMESTONE COUNTY OPERATORS GETTING LEASES EAST OF CHENEYBORO

Considerable acreage is reported being blocked by Limestone county oil operators east of Cheneyboro in South Navarro county, preparatory to a deep oil test.

The acreage being procured is in the vicinity of Richland creek on a northeast-southwest line about three miles east of the old area developed in the Richland and Powell vicinities. It is reported on a line with the Bazette and Flag Lake production.

While no official announcement has been made, landowners involved report that a test is scheduled to be made before the first of the year. It is believed the location may be immediately east of Cheneyboro, although nothing definite has been learned in this connection.

The supposed line will run between Richland and Streetman, it was stated.

Some oil showings and slight production of gas and oil were found in tests drilled in that vicinity about 20 years ago before the Richland and Powell fields were exploited and produced.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR SPECIAL SAFETY ARE PLANNED NEXT WEEK

AUSTIN, Oct. 23.—(Spl.)—State police have completed arrangements for additional activities in the traffic safety field during the week of October 30 to November 4, Colonel Homer Garrison, Jr., public safety director, announced today.

Governor W. Lee O'Daniel proclaimed that period as school safety week in Texas and joined forces with the Texas Safety Association, local safety organizations and school officials to carry safety messages into the entire school system. Director Garrison said highway patrolmen have tested practically every school bus in the state to insure a minimum number of accidents caused by mechanical defects.

State police, too, will take part in chapel programs and assist safety patrols in directing traffic in the vicinity of rural schools.

Attention of the officers will be directed at correcting careless operations of bicyclists and motorists who transport school children, Garrison said.

In keeping with the proclamation issued by the chief executive the public safety head called upon parents, school officials and motorists to assume individual responsibility in the protection of students, not only during school hours, but throughout the year.

"Those who transport school children," Garrison warned, "should discharge their responsibilities at curbs nearest their destinations so streets would not have to be crossed on foot. Playground supervisors should be alert to the dangers of their charges darting into streets to retrieve balls."

The state police department has been conducting and planning safety education courses in public schools and colleges for several years in which thousands of students take part.

Wortham Defeated Buffalo Friday Eve. WORTHAM, Oct. 23.—(Spl.)—The Wortham Bulldogs, displaying fine blocking, had little trouble trouncing the Buffalo High team, 30-0, here Friday night. Ramos scored three touchdowns and Willard one. All conversions were made from placekicks by Owens. Davis, Jones, Price and Bures blocked a punt for safety.

The Buffalo team never threatened. The Bulldogs play Ben Hur here next Friday night in a conference game.

Wortham Cattle Win At Texas State Fair. WORTHAM, Oct. 23.—(Spl.)—State fair honors have been won by a Wortham boy. Billie Van Calame's heifer won second place at the fair at Dallas. His calf won the two month class. Billie bought the calf from W. F. Belcher. Wortham livestock grower, who is well known in stock shows over the state. Mr. Eckhart also won several places in his entries in the fair, winning four seconds, three thirds, and two fourths. George Stubbs won one first place on one entry and one fifth place on another. The calf that beat Billie Van's was grand champion cow.

PRESIDENT HARDING ARRIVES AFTER MOST TEMPESTUOUS VOYAGE

TWENTY-SIX PERSONS REMOVED FROM BOAT ON STRETCHERS; ONE LOST

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—(AP)—Twenty-six persons were removed from stretchers from the United States liner President Harding today when the storm-battered vessel arrived after one of the most tempestuous and dramatic voyages in modern maritime annals.

Eyes were bloodshot, bones fractured and bodies bruised by tumbling furniture and heaving decks when the 13,868-ton liner was caught by the howling hurricane after rescuing the crew of the torpedoed British freighter Heronspool.

Altogether, 73 passengers and crew members were injured in the storm, but all except the 26 most seriously hurt were able to walk by the time the ship docked.

A cabin boy, Paul (Red) Johnson was washed overboard and lost when a mountain wave broke over the decks.

The hurricane, which had eluded meteorologists as a result of war-time restrictions on weather reports from ships at sea, struck the liner approximately 800 miles east of Boston Tuesday night.

Huge Wave Hits Ship. Passengers against the wall. Injuries were caused by one huge wave, propelled by a 110 mile an hour wind. Some said it was 100 feet high.</

UNPROFITABLE WAR BUSINESS

Any notion that the United States might be drawn into war by the hunger of business men for war orders may as well be discarded. It does injustice not only to their morals but to their intelligence. There was a time when many followed that lure, but business knows better now. It has learned that war profits are apt to be Dead Sea fruit. Especially profits in other people's wars.

"American industry hates war," says a statement of the National Association of Manufacturers. "We can and must stay out of war. And we must not utilize war emergency to boost prices for the purpose of making excessive profits."

Howard Cooley, president of the Manufacturers, and two past presidents, have joined in emphasizing this sane and righteous doctrine, and they believe our manufacturers and exporters in general agree with them.

"Our industrialists fear the dodges of war psychology," they say. "They prefer to face the task of solving difficult economic problems by the slow, and at times cumbersome, but always sure democratic processes. Industry has no stomach for war. Let those whose standards permit choose that course; but the manufacturer will not capitalize catastrophe. His memory of the debacle of the last conflict is too fresh in his mind."

"War is the greatest menace to industry. War destroys what industry builds. Even if a few could profit from war materials, in the end they must succumb to the torrent of post-war debt. Only the gambler takes a chance on war, and the management of business dares not gamble. No sensible person believes that profit can come out of the wreckage of human life and economic dislocations."

UNSAFE SAVINGS

It is natural for most people, perhaps, when they "save for a rainy day," to want their savings near by, in the form of real money—coin and banknotes that they can look at and feel and count as the pile grows. But this procedure often works badly. Weak-minded people are tempted to spend it, and strong-minded people may continue piling up their secret hoard until it gets burnt up or lost or stolen.

A sad example got into the news the other day. A middle-aged business woman had saved a dollar a week or more out of her salary for 10 years by hiding it in a small box at the bottom of a chest in her bedroom. She wanted it to use for her old father if he should need it, or for her own later years. The pile had grown to more than $1,200. Then one evening she found the chest looted and the money gone.

Better put it in the bank. Not that the banks want it particularly; in recent years they haven't known what to do with their money. But it is safe with them, and they will pay a little interest on it. Another good way for long-range savers is life insurance. These facts are well known, but too often ignored.

Maybe, after all, it isn't oratory that makes the world go round.

The big question now is, whether Stalin is still in or whether the old meanie really means it.

JUST FOLKS

(Copyright, 1937, Edgar A. Guest)

SWEET TOOTH.
I like chili sauce and pickle,
For the smell of them is nice.
I would say my palate tickles
At the slightest touch of spice.
Very fond of bottled peaches
In the winter time I am,
But my right hand always reaches
For the jelly and the jam.

I'm not fussy as a diner,
I'm not difficult to please.
I can think of little finer
Than old-fashioned cottage cheese
With chives you think to fix it,
As with cloves you trim a ham;
More especially if you mix it
With the jelly or the jam.

When November winds start
Howling,
And we're sitting by ourselves,
There's a lot of joy in prowling
Round the loaded pantry shelves
Of the stuff of jar and kettle
There's a lot I like to eat,
But it seems in vain to settle
On the jelly or the jam.

SCARCITY OR PLENTY.

"The economy of scarcity," says Dean Carl F. Witke of Oberlin College, "represents glaring failures in our whole system of production and distribution and, in my opinion, these failures outweigh all the successes in science and technology of which we boast."

And what is an "economy of society?" The term is rather new and not widely understood yet. Broadly speaking, it means creating an artificial scarcity to keep prices up. This is done in the belief that high or well sustained prices make prosperity.

So they do, apparently, for some people. But the benefit of the many seems to demand making and distributing goods and services as cheaply and plentifully as possible, depending on many small profits rather than a few large ones.

The process is obviously good for the mass of consumers. The idea has been spreading, in recent years, that it is also good for the business man.

THE GREATEST HEGIRA

What modern warfare may do to a nation is seen most dramatically in China. Says Roger Babson, who has been studying the situation there:

"If bombing planes are to determine the course of nations, then the Chinese are blazing the trail of the world of tomorrow. Furthermore, while the Japanese are fighting communism, they are driving 100,000,000 Chinese to the most effective social living witnessed since the time of the early Christians."

He paints a vivid picture of the Chinese, by tens of millions, migrating westward from northeastern China, taking the machinery from their factories and then burning the factories, destroying everything they cannot move, crossing bridges and then blowing up the bridges, trekking to western regions of small rivers and hills, digging caves in the hillsides for their homes, shops and factories and raising their food in the meadowland. Thus bombing planes cannot destroy them.

There, perhaps, will develop a new China stronger than the present one. And from those caves some day may come an army sweeping the invaders out of China.

LOCAL CONSERVATION

Nearly everybody favors conservation, but many go too far afield for it, approving perhaps of something far away and then leaving it to the federal or state government. There is opportunity for useful conservation work in every state, county and township, to improve the soil, save the woods and preserve and encourage wild life.

We might well go still farther and realize the domestic opportunities of this kind in our fields, gardens and dooryards. How about draining and fertilizing our own little patches of ground, planting more trees and encouraging the birds and squirrels to make themselves at home in the yard?

In all this sort of effort is profit and deep satisfaction. And people today have more time for it than they used to have.

Borah says it's a "phony" war. But not funny.

FASHION'S DECREE!

RED FOOT IN NAZI DOOR

In trying to steer a clear course through these confused world events, and to get a slant on the future, it is helpful to take a frequent look at the record. Fuehrer Hitler, who now seems to "bestride this narrow world like a Colossus," was saying in a speech to the German Reichstag on January 30, 1937:

"It is out of the question that National Socialist Germany could ever be found to protect Bolshevism, or that we on our side could ever agree to accept the assistance of the Bolshevik state. For I fear that the moment any nation agreed to accept such assistance, it would thereby seal its own doom."

How now, little Fuehrer? What was then out of the question is today very much in the question. Germany, through all-powerful Hitler, has "accepted the assistance of the Bolshevik state."

And the world seems, and perhaps the German people themselves see, what the result is. Stalin is rapidly grabbing buffer states on his western border, encroaching on the Nazi domains, limiting Nazi opportunities for expansion. And it begins to look as if Hitler, who professes to be Germany, has sealed his own doom.

DOUBLE THANKS

President Clothier of Rutgers College has decided on two Thanksgiving Days for that institution. One will occur on Nov. 23, the date proclaimed by the President. The other will be Nov. 30, for the benefit of the intercollegiate football schedule.

Texas will also have two Thanksgiving Days. After all, two Thanksgiving Days a year are few enough in which to count America's blessings and be thankful for them.

There is talk of American radio propagandists broadcasting from Mexico if barred by American radio stations for reasons of public policy. And there's no law against that, if the Mexicans can stand it.

Poor Russia, with only most of Europe and Asia to live in, thinks she needs more room, but there'll be trouble when she pushes into Germany's "lebensraum."

Prime Minister Chamberlain is another of those fellows who "can be led but not driven."

Sweden might stop some of that ideological nonsense by refusing to sell iron ore to dictatorship countries.

SOUVENIR THIEVERY

Hotel keepers have a low opinion of the "moral outlook" of the traveling public. And well they may! Souvenir hunters in the United States carry away $1,000,000 worth of their property—linen, silverware, ash trays and blankets—every year.

Souvenir - thievery is a curious habit to find among a people generally honest, as Americans are. Foreigners have been surprised to see how safely a newsboy may leave a pile of papers unwatched and return to find that, in his absence, readers have picked up their papers and dropped the right number of coins on the pile. They have been surprised to see the same system working at open-air markets and other places. Lost pocketbooks containing considerable sums of money are regularly returned to owners. There are countless other examples of the common honesty of most people.

Yet some of the same people who would not steal either a newsboy's papers or his pennies, who would not touch another's pocketbook, who pay their bills as promptly as possible and are honest in all their other normal relations, will think nothing of taking off souvenirs from hotels. For some strange reason, it is not considered stealing. Can the psychologists explain this? Or show us how to correct it?

There are too many people "demented with the mania of owning things." Also too many demented with the mania of pushing other people around.

There are still as many casualties in motor traffic as in war, and no good reason for 'em in either case.

One thing to remember in any war is that neither side is so righteous or so vicious as it's represented.

Over 500 parents were present to hear the program sponsored by Drew Gillen, Mrs. R. D. The health committee reported that a typhoid clinic would be held within the next few days and urged that all take the serum if possible.

After the business session the following program was presented: Devotional, Rev. Robert Williams, pastor, Central Baptist church.

Aviator Insists
Planes Able Sink
Any Sized Fleet

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 20.—(P)—A group of 250 "determined" aviators of any nation could blow the best fleet built right out of the ocean," says Lieut. Richard Aldworth, superintendent of Newark airports and the only flier credited with dropping a bomb down a warship's funnel.

"I think if any nation was prepared to take the losses and used heavy enough bombs they could cripple, if not destroy, fleet even as powerful as England's," he said yesterday in an interview, "and, I'm sure, any nation that wanted to take a crack at it could get the men to do it."

Aldworth flew for the United States during the World War and was active in aviation after it. A destroyer "went down like a rock," he recalled, when he dropped a 25-pound bomb from his pursuit ship off the Virginia Capes during maneuvers in 1921. The bomb plummeted down the funnel of the destroyer when army bombers also sank a former German battleship, a cruiser and two submarines.

REORGANIZATION OF
ARMY TO BE ASKED
OF NEXT CONGRESS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—(P)—Congress will be asked to approve a reorganization of the army into nine highly mobile corps of more than 40,000 troops each, it was indicated by administration sources today.

Plans worked out by the war department call for expansion of the regular army to its authorized peace-time limit of 280,000 men and of the National guard to 320,000. Such an increase would provide 63,000 more men for the regulars and 85,000 in the guard.

The program has been described to members of congressional military committees as being designed to weld the present scattered land forces into units ready for any emergency.

The first steps of the proposed reorganization have been taken with orders for five streamlined regular army divisions to undergo special training this winter in the south and northwest.

Each of the proposed new corps would be composed of one regular army division, two guard divisions and special auxiliary troops. The corps would be grouped into four field armies.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—(P)—The federal debt has jumped to a record high of $40,983,892,881, as the treasury resumed borrowing to pay for its deficit.

The debt jumped $58,000,000 in one day principally because the treasury's sale of $150,000,000 worth of 91-day discount bills this week when only approximately $100,000,000 worth of similar obligations came due and needed replacement.

Three Children
Burn to Death In Flames Log Home

SAN AUGUSTINE, Oct. 20.—(P)—Neighbors today stood beside the ash pile that was Edward Eberlan's old log home.

They stared in silence at the naked, smoke blackened chimney. It marked the site of the quaint Attoyac community's tragedy.

Yesterday Mrs. Eberlan built a fire in her cook stove to fix supper. Her five year and three year old children played around the crib of the three months old Eberlan child.

The mother didn't disturb the children. She locked the door and walked a mile and a half to the home of a neighbor to get some milk.

When she got back the log house had burned down.

The charred bodies of the youngsters were in the ashes.

Neighbors in this community where folks live pretty much in the fashion of their grandparents, took the Eberlans in last night.

The bodies of the children were buried in the little country graveyard today.

WAISTLINE WHITTILING

Recently I made a movie short of exercises designed to whittle down waistlines. I hope you saw it, because the action pictures are so easy to follow and understand.

Twist leg across body

However, I shall give these exercises to you in picture form, and hope the descriptions will be clear—and that you will really do them. There is no question but what tiny waistlines are the vogue, and will be for some time. So get in step with fashion and get yours down by working on your exercises, and watching your diet.

For the one we have illustrated today, stand against the wall, arms raised at shoulder level. Bend the elbows and keep the hands against the wall. Now raise the right knee in front of you to the count of one. At the count of two twist hard until you feel a strong pull at the waistline. To the count of three return the leg to the upright position in front of you as at the count of one, and then on four lower to a standing position. Repeat with the left leg. b u t st-a-t-c-h! as you push the leg around to the right side. This will be difficult in the beginning, but daily workouts will soon have that knee against the wall while your shoulders stay flat against the wall. Even our little model worked hard at it; but it is a grand waistliner!

P. AND S. HOSPITAL IN OPERATION FOR TWENTY-FIVE YEARS

COUNTY INSTITUTION HAS SERVED COMMUNITY FOR QUARTER CENTURY

The P. and S. Hospital, Navarro county institution, is completing a quarter of a century service in furnishing hospitalization to the people requiring it in this section. Thousands of patients have been cared for during that period, and for a number of years after its operation was started, it was the only institution of its kind in Navarro county.

Twenty-five years ago Saturday, Oct. 21, 1914, the first order was passed relative to the establishment of the P. and S. Hospital. The Navarro county commissioners court authorized the purchase of the block on which the hospital is located from the Peter Blisso estate. The actual beginning of the operation of the hospital, however, did not get under way until the spring of 1915 when alterations, additions, etc., to the old Blisso home were consummated. The wards, office and operating rooms of the present hospital are sections of the old original home purchased as the beginning of the hospital. Several wings and additions have been added from time to time.

E. R. Owen, local attorney, was county judge when the hospital was established.

Early years' records are incomplete and are not available.

The county government, and for years the city of Corsicana, contributed money to the institution to care for charity patients unable to provide facilities. For years, however, the county alone has operated the hospital, and makes monthly allowances to care for the indigent cases admitted.

The hospital is ranked as a 50-bed affair, and has complete and modern equipment to care for all types of treatment, including a new X-ray unit and complete laboratory.

A nurses school was operated a number of years ago in the nurses home located across the street north of the main hospital, but later that was discontinued and it was used for a dormitory for nurses.

After the second floor of the main hospital was turned into a dormitory for nurses, the NYA Co-Operative house was located in the nurses home.

Hospital Board.
The commissioners court appoints a hospital board of six members, three each year, who are the managers of the institution, hire a superintendent and determine the policy of the hospital.

Operation Cost.

The county has been appropriating $6,000 per year toward the maintenance of the institution while the expenditures approximate $20,000 per year, the remaining difference representing the amount of pay patients cared for. In the 1940 budget as recently adopted by the commissioners court, $5,000 has been set up for the P. and S. In past years, the county appropriation has fluctuated as conditions necessitated and warranted.

There have been more than 700 patients admitted to the P. and S. thus far this year, not including frequent first aid recipients, X-ray pictures taken or numerous other types of service rendered.

Numerous interested individuals and organizations from time to time have provided furniture, operating room equipment and other needed things.

The Navarro Community Foundation recently authorized the caring for 24 indigent maternity cases during the next several months.

Surviving are his wife, of Dallas; a son, Lexie Jarrell, Houston; and two daughters, Misses Eddie Jarrell and Jo Jarrell, both teachers in the Dallas school system.

REV. GUY NEWMAN PREACHED SUNDAY AT FIRST BAPTIST

Rev. Guy Newman, assistant pastor of the Seventh and James Street church of Waco, filled the pulpit at the First Baptist church yesterday in the absence of the pastor, who is holding a revival meeting at the church.

Mr. Newman brought two splendid messages, preaching in the morning hour on "Rivalry of Nationalism and Christianity," and in the evening hour on "Am Not Ashamed of the Gospel of Christ." The choir sang "Lift Up Your Heads" and the ladies' quartet sang "How Tedious and Tasteless" in the morning service, and Miss Mary McManis sang "Sunrise" in the evening service. One joined the church by letter.

There were 632 in Sunday school yesterday morning, with interesting departmental programs. The superintendents will meet Wednesday at 6:30 and the teachers will meet at 7.

There were 195 in the training union, Miss Joanne Carroll, Mrs. E. E. Sumner and Miss Mary McManis presented a playlet in the opening assembly. The "officers' training camp" will be held Tuesday evening at 7:30 in the church parlor. Those who will lead in the discussions of the duties of the officers are Mrs. J. K. Wood, Mrs. Carl Parsons, Miss Jeanne Carroll, Miss Mary McManis, Lloyd Shapley, Mrs. Tommie Godfrey, Mrs. M. Simpson, Miss Opal Klutts, Miss Sophia Curry and Miss Vera Bottoms.

The mid-week prayer meeting will be held Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to attend this service. Choir rehearsal will be held after prayer meeting at 8:20.

NO CHANGES NOTED IN STANDINGS OF DISTRICT 10-AA LAST WEEK

No changes were noted in the District 10-AA standings as the result of last week-end's games except that Waco dropped Hillsboro to go into a tie with Corsicana and Cleburne for the lead with two wins each and no losses. No District 10-AA club lost although three were tied in the non-conference attractions.

Cleburne Jackets demonstrated again they are powerful with a 40-7 decision over the Stephenville crew.

Corsicana was forced to come from behind in the second half to tie Port Arthur Yellow Jackets at Port Arthur, 14-14.

Bryan and Sam Houston (Houston) battled to a 13-13 tie in Bryan, while Arlington tied Waxahachie at Waxahachie, 6-6.

The traditional "Battle of the Bengals" between Corsicana and Waco at Tiger field here Friday night will be one of the highlights of the season, and a capacity crowd is expected.

Both have real ball clubs and the rivalry existing through the years always insures a torrid scrap. Waco rolled over Hillsboro, 52-6, Friday night while the Corsicans were fighting with their backs to the wall in Port Arthur.

The decisive victory of the Wacoans will not help the attitude of those boys, while the tie for the Bengals will likely prove beneficial in that it shows the boys what a big offensive ball club can do with long passes.

Intensive drills will be given by both Coaches Paul Tyson and John A. Pierce for the first three days this week. Nothing pleases more than to win on this occasion. Waco has won the past three years, while prior to that time Corsicana cuffed them unmercifully for a number of years.

Waxahachie invades Bryan Friday night in another conference battle, but it will not attract the crowds as will the tilt here.

Hillsboro has an open date. Mexia was scheduled to play Cleburne at Cleburne, but it has been reported here that Mexia has cancelled the tilt. Ennis has sought to arrange a game with Cleburne, but no official announcement had been learned here during the week-end.

District Standing:

Team	W.	L.	Pct.
Corsicana	2	0	1.000
Cleburne	2	0	1.000
Bryan	2	0	1.000
Waxahachie	0	1	.000
Hillsboro	0	2	.000

Plans for the achievement tours were completed. Communities to be visited Wednesday Oct. 25, are: Whites Chapel, Emhouse, and Barry in the morning; J. O. n e s Ranch, Stansell, Moffat, and Richland in the afternoon. Friday, Oct. 27, the tour will be made as follows: Oak Valley, Corbet, Roane, in the morning and Bazette, Independence, and Powell in the afternoon.

After a business session the meeting adjourned to meet again in November at which time officers will be elected for 1940.

1ST PRESBYTERIAN REVIVAL MEETING HAS GOOD START

The revival meeting at the First Presbyterian church had a most favorable beginning Sunday. Dr. Joel of Austin brought three inspiring messages. In addition to the two regular preaching services, he spoke to a joint session of the young people of Third Avenue and the First Presbyterian churches. The Presbyterian pastor, Rev. L. O. Cunningham, and his congregation from Patterson Memorial Presbyterian church, Kureika, worshipped with us in the evening service.

Dr. Joel will speak Monday through Friday at 10 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. In the morning hours he is teaching a course in the Old Testament prophets, with special reference to direct application of their messages to our day.

The public is invited to hear Dr. Joel.
